1994 note of Schulyer Brossman: impossible to determine if church records cited above relate to Frantz Brossman without further investigation.

Historical and Biographical Annals of Berks County, Pa. Vol I of 2, publ, Beers & Co., 1909. p. 1659, vol I. : "The Brossman family is one of the oldest in Berks county, dating back to the early part of the eighteenth century. Francis (Frantz) Brossman, a German by birth, so tradition says, was one of the Schoharie County, N.Y., settlers who came to Berks county between 1723 & 1728. When Berks county was organized in 1752, he was an inhabitant of Heidelberg township. The following year, 1753, he paid eighteen pounds tax, and in 1754 he paid twenty-two pounds tax. This shows him to have been a large landowner. His remains are undoubtedly buried at St. Daniel's (Corner) Church, which was the spiritual home of all those early pioneers..."

Schuyler Brossman, Rehrersburg, Pa. 7 Dec 1971. Brossman Family Historian. part of Drummond collection: "Frantz Brossman, was aged 45 years when he arrived in Philadelphia, Pa from Rotterdam via Deal on the ship Friendship on 3 Sep 1739. The ship commander was William Vittery and it carried 150 passengers. According to his age he would have been born in 1693-1694.

The ship list of the ship, Friendship, is found, of Sep 1739 the name Frantz Prossman even though his signature is written Brossman.

Available records indicate he had the following children: Anna Magdalena, m. Johannes Kistler; Justina Catarina, b. before 1734; Frantz Sebastian Brossman, b. 28 Aug 1728, d. 26 Nov 1797, bur Christ Luth. Ch., Stouchsburg, Pa. Served in Berks Co., Militia, Rev. War, M. Maria Saloma ----; Maria Appolonia Brossman, b. ca. 1732, Baltser Umbonhauer, lived Bernville, Pa.; Anna Margaretha Brossman, b. ca. 1733, may have m. Jacob Rossell; Christina, b. ca. 1738; Johannes, b. either 1739 or 1742, d. 26 Aug 1807, m. Anna Maria Heilman, b. 1742, d. 1812.

Frantz Brossman, the immigrant, came from Germany. He died without a will and an inventory of his estate in Jan 1750, recorded in the Lancaster County Pa courthouse lists his widow as Clarlis or Corlis. He died in October 1749 and was buried 18 Oct 1749 probably in the cemetery of Christ Lutheran Church of Stouchsburg as this is recorded in the church records..."

A transcription of the records are to be found in the Historical Society of Berks Co, Reading, Pa. It should be noted that the part of Lancaster county in which Frantz lived later became, in 1752, Berks County. "Frantz Brossman was among the founders of Christ Church in 1743."

From another source: "The first reference to the Brossman (Brosman, Brossmann, Brozman, Brozmann, Brotzman, Brotsmann, Broseman, Brossman etc.) Family in America appears on the passenger list of the ship Friendship which landed in Philadelphia, Penna. Sept. 3, 1739. Among the list of passengers appears the name of Frantz Brossman whose age is given as 45 years. His signature indicates that he was able to write his own name while many of the other passengers signed it with an X or other mark. On the clerk's list the name is spelled Prossman, which is probably the way Frantz Brossman pronounced it with his German accent. However on the signature list the name is spelled Frantz Brossman. This is a good example of how various spellings of the same name came about, with church, tax collector, militia sergeant, etc., each writing the name differently. ----"

She states, "It seems as if Franz Brossmann went to Klarenthal directly after his marriage as he states in 1731 that he is from Wurttemberg and have bought in 1724 a property for 40 Thaler. On the property had been Michel Burger before. The text from 1731 is in very old fashioned german, but I think that he had some difficulties in paying the 40 Thaler for the property but had still hope in 1731 that he will be able to do it in some years.

It seems that he left Klarenthal somehow between 1737 and 1739 when he emigrated on the Friendship. "

JWB - Using this information, I have updated the birth dates and added what appears to be baptism dates and sponsors as well.

I visited the old cemetery of Christ Lutheran Church of Stouchsburg about 1995 but did not find any head stone for Frantz. That's not suprising because many of the head stones are nothing more than chunks of rough limestone without any inscriptions.

"Johannes Brossman, b. 1742, d. 26 Aug 1807 and his wife Anna Maria Heilman, b. 1742, d. 20 Dec 1812 both buried in St. Daniel's Lutheran cemetery, Robesonia, Pa.,...When Johannes Brossman died in 1807 he left no will and an inventory had to be taken of his estate. A petition for this partition of the estate is recorded in the Real Estate Book in the Berks County Courthouse, Reading, Pa., vol 6, page 68. In this petition is mentioned the following nine children: John Brossman, the petitioner; (John) Peter; Margaret, wife of John Lamm; Catharine, wife of Balzer Wittmer; Susanna, wife of John Kessler; Adam; Benjam; Jacob; Anna Maria, wife of John Gerhart. The document is too long to include in this article. Johannes Brossman is listed in the records of Christ Lutheran Church of Stouchsburg, PA on Whitsunday, 1754, as age 15 (therefore born 1739 instead of 1742 as shown on his tombstone). JWB Note:

It appears that (John) Peter Brossman's sons Benjamin and Samuel moved to Illinois about 1830-1833. Even though both were born with the name Brossman, census records indicate that Benjamin and all of his offspring have become known as Bressman. In Samuel's case, some, but maybe not all of his offspring apparently became known as Brosman.

This is apparently the effect of different census takers and different pronunciation with the German accent.

Notes from Schuyler's book on Benjamin Brussman --

Res. Berks Co, PA, before 1809; Cumberland Co, PA, 1809-1829; Dayton Twp, Clark Co, OH 1830; German Twp, Clark Co, OH 1850.

Notes provided by Julie Saltz:

A blacksmith and then res. Hempfield Twp, Cumberland Co, PA, he purchased 26A 82P in Dickinson Twp, Cumberland Co, PA from Andrew Huston and wife Elizabeth on 4 Apr 1809. (Cumberland Co, PA Deed Book 1-T, p 83) He had this land Patented on 4 Dec 1809 per warrant dated 10 Jul 1752 to Samuel Swaney, called Avondale. (Book 1-AA-177) He and his wife Anne sold 25A 123P to Christian Coover on 28 Sep 1829, same tract, excepting 119P sold to William Ewing. (Book HMM-207).

1840 Census, German Twp, Clark Co, OH; 1850 Census, same place.

His gravestone in Community Cem, Lawrenceville, OH, reads: "Benjamin Brusman, died Dec. 14, 1857, aged 81 years."

JWB Notes:

The information on the name change was provided by Julie Saltz. The spelling of the last name Brusman is most likely another case of the German accent and the miss spelling by a census taker and the spelling "took". This is now the third corruption of the original name Brossman that is found so far, the other two being Bressman and Brosman.

Samuel Brossman/Brosman and Catherine Sanders were married on 27 Jul 1826 in Warwick, Lancaster Co., PA.<sup>12</sup>

JWB Notes:

It appears that many of Samuel's children may use the spelling Brosman instead of Brossman. As time goes on, more of these names and descendants may change from Brossman to Brosman.

Samuel and his family went west with his brother Benjamin and two other brothers but settled in Illinois when one of the brothers' wife died. See the Notes with Benjamin Brossman/Bressman and Jacob Bressman.

It also appears that his family relocated from Illinois about 1851 which is most likely the same time his brother Benjamin Brossman/Bressman relocated to Iowa.

Notes:

The following is an excerpt from a biography of Jacob Bressman written by Schuyler Brossman 7 Dec. 1971 and supplied by Corrinne Ellis. Another portion of this biography can be found with Jacob Bressman, Benjamin's son.

"According to family tradition, as related by an aged member of this Brossman family of Lebanon County, Pa., Benjamin Brossman, and three of his brothers headed for the gold mines (could it have been the silver mines?) in the mid-1800s. They got as far as Indiana or Illinois when one of the wives died. This so discouraged them that two decided to return to Pennsylvania and the other two stayed in Indiana or Illinois. There can be no doubt that if Benjamin Brossman and his family were among this group of travelers, his children, which included Jacob Bressman, were with him as well as their mother.

By the time of the 1870 U.S. Census, Benjamin Brussman (as the name was then spelled) was found in the township of Benton, County of Fremont in Iowa, according to Vol. 116, page 11, line 31 of the census record. ...."

JWB note. Based on what we know today, it appears that Benjamin, Samuel and possibly Peter and Johannes went west together about 1830-1833. By 1833, children are being born to Benjamin in Illinois. It is speculation that Johannes's wife Catherine died (possibly in Indiana) and he and Peter returned to Pennsylvania. Samuel's family stayed in Illinois while Benjamin's family continued to grow in Illinois and then moved on to Iowa between 1850 and 1856 according to the 1850 U.S. Census of Coles County IL and Jacob Bressman's marriage to Harriet Harrington. It also appears that Benjamin Brossman became known as Benjamin Bressman, probably in Iowa as all his offspring carry the name Bressman to this day. End of notes

Benjamin Brossman/Bressman and Elizabeth Krick (Kreig)<sup>20</sup> were married on 6 Mar 1825 in Stouchsburg, Berks Co., PA.<sup>12</sup> The Benjamin Brossman family lived in the Schaefferstown area of Lebanon Co. Pa before going west to Iowa. Listed in the 1860 census in Fremont Co. Iowa Elizabeth Krick (Kreig) was born about 1802.<sup>12,21</sup> She died about Jul 1877 at the age of 75 in Percival, Fremont Co., IA.<sup>12,19</sup>

He was an intelligent citizen in position of honor and trust. He served as school director, supervisor and frequently was a delegate to County Corrections. He was Captain in the State Militia, a military organization of his day and the sword he wore is now in the possession of his youngest son, Hillorius! Mr. Brossman was an exceedingly versatile man, his ability as a mechanic, making him an expert cabinet maker, carpenter and cooper, and blacksmith, he understood tree grafting, as few men did. He successfully grafted shell backs, chestnuts, and all kinds of fruits, also budded peach trees. He made a number of musical instruments including a piano which his son Isaac W. now possesses and has also repaired musical instruments. In 1872, he erected the present house upon his farm. This reflects the skill of his workmanship. As all the doors, wainscoting, and etc. were made by hand. In this house there may also be seen a bureau, beds, and an old-fashioned Grandfather's clock,

 SAAC BROSMAN OBITUARY
 CLARK COUNTY HERALD
 14-FEB-1901

Isaac Brosman died at his home in Terre Haute on Sunday after an illness of 6 weeks. He had been in feeble health for many months. The funeral was held in Martinsville on Tuesday, Rev. Kettring officiating and the remains were laid to rest in the Rupp Cemetery.

Mr. Brosman was born in Lancaster County, Pennsylvania, 75 years ago. In his youth he joined the Church of God. When still a young man he moved to Illinois settling in Martinsville where he lived for a few years until he moved to Terre Haute. There he united with the Christian Church.

He leaves a wife, two sons, two sisters, and many grand and great grandchildren.

End of note.

Isaac Brossman and Sarah Saloma (Shizman)Stutzman were married on 1 Dec 1845.<sup>12</sup>

JWB Notes:

It appears that Isaac may not have been with his parents when they moved to Illinois around 1835-36 but remained in Pennsylvania with someone else. It appears he moved with his wife and three children first to Ohio around 1851 and then to Illinois between 1857 and 1862.

It is not clear which spelling was used by this family. Some records are Brossman while others are Brosman. It is my opinion that Brossman is correct since it appears Isaac and family did not move to Ohio and Illinois until at least 1851. Assuming he remained in Pennsylvania with an aunt and uncle or grandparent while his parents moved to Illinois, the name could have become fixed as Brossman.

Mrs. Ann Mariah NEIDIGH, an estimable lady of Bloomfield, died at an early hour last Friday morning at the home of her daughter, Mrs. S. R. JACKSON, after an illness covering several weeks.

Her maiden name was BROSMAN and she was born May 23, 1832 in Lebanon County, Pennsylvania; died April 6, 1906, aged 74 years, 10 months and 13 days. She came with her parents to this county and settled near Union Bethel, north of town.

She united with the Cumberland Presbyterian church at Camp Ground when a girl but afterward transferred her membership to the Methodist Protestant church at Allen Chapel at which place she held her membership until her death.

She had made her home in Bloomfield for the last fifteen years and was esteemed by all who knew her. She had been feeble for a number of years. And nine weeks before her death she slipped and fell, sustaining an injury to one of her hips, from which she never recovered.

The funeral services were held from Union Bethel Church Sunday morning, conducted by the Rev. W. H. WYLIE, and the remains were laid to rest in the cemetery at that place.

We take this means of expressing our heartfelt thanks to our neighbors and friends for their many acts of kindness and sympathy during the illness and death of our dear mother, Mrs. Ann Mariah NEIDIGH.

John BROSMAN departed this life at his residence near Bloomfield, Indiana on the 8th day of June, 1905, and the funeral services were held on the 9th, the Rev. W. H. WYLIE of the Bloomfield M. E. church officiating.

The deceased was born April 7, 1840, in Lebanon County, Pennsylvania and moved to Greene County, Indiana with his parents in 1851, where he resided until the time of his death.

On the first call for volunteers in April 1861, he volunteered as a soldier. The first call for volunteers was filled so rapidly that the company in which he enlisted was not accepted when tendered to the Governor, but in May following was accepted and assigned to the 14TH REGIMENT OF INDIANA VOUNTEER INFANTRY, commanded by Col. Nathan KIMBALL, was afterwards Gen. KIMBALL.

He went into camp at Camp Vigo, near Terre Haute, on the 7th day of May 1861, and on the 7th day of June thereafter, was mustered into the service for three years, this being the first regiment mustered into the three years service in this State. Later he re-enlisted as a veteran and served until the close of the war.

On the 11th day of July 1861, he left Indiana with his regiment for West Virginia, and was present at the battle of Rich Mountain. He was in West Virginia until March 1862, when he entered upon the Shenandoah Valley campaign with the first battle at Winchester. On July 11th, 1862, he with his regiment joined the army of the Potomac, at Harrison Landing on the James River, Va. He continued in the second corps of the army of the Potomac until April 23, 1865 when he was transferred to the Veteran Reserve Corps. He was in all the battles in which the Second Corps participated from Jul 1, 1862, to and including Spotsylvania courthouse at which time he was severely wounded. He served in CO D 14TH REGIMENT until that regiment was mustered out of service by reason of expiration of term of service, when he was transferred to 29TH REGIMENT OF INDIANA VOL. INFY. and later was assigned to CO. B of 29TH REGT reorganized. He was always present for duty, and always at the forefront of every battle. Among the battles in which he participated in addition to those already named were, Antietam, Fredericksburg, Chancellorville, second battle of Bull Run, Gettysburg, the Wilderness, together with many other engagements of less note. He was gallant and faithful in all his years of service.

On returning home after his long service he resumed the position of a faithful and upright citizen and continued thus to the end. His occupation was farming.

On the 28th day of February 1864, while home on veteran furlough, he united in marriage with Harriet HUNTER, formerly Harriet MYERS. To this marriage were born two children, Nancy J., who died at the age of 18, and Susan E., who married Thomas TERRELL. She died at the age of 23 leaving one child Elmer K. TERRELL, who is now fifteen years of age. Mr. BROSMAN'S wife died Sept 25, 1872. On the 27th day of January 1874, he united in marriage with Elizabeth A. BURCH, who survives him.

There were born to this marriage, five children: Charles W., who died in infancy, and four who survive him. They are Alva and Albert, aged 28 years; Ezra, aged 26 years, and Cynthia TIMMONS, wife of Ennis TIMMONS, aged 24 years. The deceased united with the Protestant Methodist church about the year 1850 and lived a continuous upright Christian life, respected by all who knew him.

It can be truthfully said of him, that he fought a good fight and kept the faith, as a patriot and gallant soldier, as well as a follower of the Great Master; and that henceforth there is laid up for him a crown of righteousness when the Lord, the righteous Judge, shall give him.

The following note came from Corrinne Ellis.

From the book "Old Heart of Nevada", page 184 by Shawn Hall. "In 1882 he [Thomas Short] sold the Cave Creek Ranch to Jacob Bressman...The Cave Creek Ranch remained the property of Jacob Bressman until his death in 1896. After Bressman died, the ranch passed to Lou Benson, who had been a very popular teamster on stage lines to Eureka and Hamilton. Benson ran the ranch until he died in July 1927, when Albert Hankins took over. He then sold the ranch and the nearby marshlands to the government for the purpose of establishing the Ruby Lake Migratory Water Fowl and Game Refuge. A private cemetery at Cave Creek contains a number of graves, including Jacob Bressman's."

The following is an excerpt from a biography of Jacob Bressman written by Schuyler Brossman 7 Dec. 1971 and supplied by Corrinne Ellis. Another portion of this biography can be found with Benjamin Brossman, Jacob's father.

A tombstone in Ruby Lake National Wildlife Refuge, Ruby Valley, Nevada, marks the grave of an early pioneer of that area and reads, "Jacob Bressman, March 26, 1830 - Jan. 11, 1896 - In thee O Lord I put my trust". The grave marks the end of the trail for a man who was born in Pennsylvania, of hardy Pennsylvania German Pioneer stock, often referred to as Pennsylvania Dutch in error. He lived in Iowa and possibly Indiana or Illinois before he ended up in Nevada, according to US Census reports.

Close to the grave is a well preserved log cabin that is referred to locally as the "Bressman Cabin". The location of the cabin is T27N; R58E; NW160 and between the SE 40 and SW40, according to information found by Lynn C. Howard, Refuge Manager in a letter of 30 Nov 1971.

Mr. Howard states as an attachment in his letter: "Further search through our land acquisition files has disclosed reference to the following names on a legal document". "The heirs of Andrew Bressman and Mollie Bressman, deceased, the heirs of Louis Benson, sometimes known as Lou Benson, deceased, Thomas Short (translation of name Thomas Kline) and Richard Roe to one hundredth, and Evelyn Kelly".

Evelyn Kelly, Evelyn Benson are one and the same. She was also the daughter of Jacob Bressman or Brossman.

"Also, a land title dated 11/16/37 and signed by Evelyn Kelly and George Kelly, her husband, deeds 1215.6 acres to the U.S. Government for refuge purposes." This is the end of the letter from Mr. Howard. However, he included in his account a description by a local rancher of the family which reads: "The Benson family made a business of hauling freight to the mining camps. Mrs Benson's father, Mr. (Jacob) Bressman, also hauled freight with the Benson's. Mrs. Deby Benson drove a four horse team and the men, Benson and Bressman, each drove a 12 horse team. During their freight hauling days they had no head-quarters and camped out. Mrs. Benson always wore a long dress, never overalls."

"They finally sold their freight outfit and bought cattle and settled in the south end of Ruby Valley. They were a rough, hardworking people, typical pioneers, having no comforts whatever in their living quarters, but they were honest, right people." "Mr. Bressman died in Ruby Valley and was buried on his property."

SCB Notes

Frank Brossman was the seventh child of Adam and Kate Gassert Brosman, and the only one who did not marry, although he grew to manhood. He worked as a hired man close to Phoenixville, Pa. and while enroute to a lime kiln was struck, along with his team and wagon, by a railway train.

Clippings from the Pennsburg Town and Country newspaper, Saturday, December 14, 1901

"Frank BROSSMAN, driver for F.A. POTH, whose farm is in Norriton township, was instantly killed Monday morning, at the DeKalb street crossing of the Reading Railway, in Bridgeport. BOSSMAN was driving a pair of mules to a Dearborn wagon. The safety gates were raised, and he had started to cross the tracks, when the crossing watchman warned him that a passenger train was approaching. BROSSMAN saw his danger, and tried to urge his mules to a faster gait. As he reached the tracks the engine struck his team. BROSSMAN's body was terribly mutilated, and both mules were killed. He was well known in this end of the county, having been formerly employed by James S. FAUST and Frank BRUNST, of Fagleysville, for a number of years. On Sunday the day before the accident Mr. BROSSMAN visited a number of his old friends in the vicinity of Fagleysville."

Notes:

Ruben Brossman whose reputation as a skilled workman at the carpenter trade extends throughout the county, resides on the old Samuel Greath place in Heidelberg Township, Berks County.

Ruben Brossman received his intellectual training in common schools and lived upon the farm until he was 25 years of age. He then learned the trade of carpenter, which he has followed since, a period of over twenty-five years. He early developed into an industrious and skillful worker, and great many buildings are the results of his labor. In 1889 he purchased the Samuel Greath place on which he has a carpenter shop. In 1891 he received an ugly cut in the knee, which compelled him to quit work for a time, but he now does all kinds of fine wood and iron work, at which he is very skillful.

He is a man of high principle, and possesses the respect and esteem of the entire community in which he lives. In political belief, he is a staunch Democrat and takes an active interest in political affairs. He has been assessor of the town since 1892, performing duties of that office in a satisfactory manner. In religious attachment, he and his worthy wife are Lutherans." End of notes

THE BLOOMFIELD NEWS, VOL. XLIII., NO. 51, Page 4, Column 2, Bloomfield, Greene County, Indiana, Thursday, November 6, 1919, "DEATH'S HARVEST-BROSMAN."

Laura Alice BROSMAN, daughter of Ezra and Margaret BROSMAN, was born in Taylor township, October 16, 1862; died November 2, 1919; aged fifty-seven years, seventeen days. She was united in marriage with Jeremiah KILLINGER, August 22, 1880. To this union were born three children—Mrs. Maggie SHERTZER, of Bloomfield; Viereice KILLINGER, of Bebe, Montana; and Robert KILLINGER, of near Bloomfield, who, with the husband and two sisters and one brother, survive; namely, Mrs. Inez CALVERT, Peoria, Ill; Mrs. Jane HUFFMAN, of Taylor township, and Will BROSMAN, of Albion, Ill., besides a host of friends. She had lived near Bloomfield all her life and had been a christian since childhood, uniting with the Allen Chapel church in early life.

In the year 1914 she united with the Pentecostal Nazarene church, being a charter member.

She had been in failing health for the past two years. Her last illness was only one week. Through her suffering she was patient and ever cheerful. The Bible was her constant companion and guide. She will be greatly missed in her home and church, which she loved so much. But we weep not as those who have no hope, for her trust was daily in her Savior.

The funeral was conducted at the Mr. Zion church, north of Bloomfield, Tuesday afternoon, by Rev. J. S. RANDALL. Interment in the Grand View Cemetery.

JWB Note:

The following note came to me via Corrinne Ellis. The original source of the note is: Nonpareil (Council Bluffs, Iowa), October 3, 1897 newspaper.

"In the federal court yesterday by holding a night session that lasted until 11 o'clock Judge Woolson managed to dispose of all the criminal cases on the docket for this term.

On court convening in the morning Judge Woolson delivered his instructions to the jury in the case of George McKnight the Omaha man who in conjunction with Andrew Bressman, who had pleaded guilty, was charged with passing counterfeit money in his possession. The jury after being out about five hours brought in a verdict acquitting him on the charge of passing but found him guilty of having counterfeit money in his possession.

Andrew Bressman, who pleaded guilty to the double charge of passing counterfeit money and having it in his possession with the intent to pass it, was sentenced to five years in the penitentiary at Fort Madison. Bressman is a young man only 19 years of age and was arrested in company with George McKnight in a wagon about four miles east of the city by Chief of Police Canning.

Bressman and McKnight came from Omaha and were, it was claimed, on their way to Des Moines. The former passed a spurious dollar at a Broadway grocer and when arrested twenty other counterfeit dollars were found in the wagon. He has been in the county jail several months awaiting trial. He has tried to screen McKnight all along by claiming that he alone was responsible for the counterfeit money and that McKnight knew nothing about it being in the wagon. The court intimated in passing sentence that if Bressman had informed the government officers where he obtained the counterfeit money he would have dealt more leniently with him. Bressman was completely unnerved when he learned his sentence and broke down and wept bitterly.

McKnight, his partner, got off with a sentence of two years in the penitentiary at Annamosa, the jury having found him only guilty on the charge of having counterfeit money in his possession. His attorneys applied for a new trial, but this was overruled by the court. In their verbal statements to the court the attorneys gave as one of the grounds for a new trial the alleged misconduct on the part of the jury. The court demanded a more specific statement and one submitted in writing, but after a brief consultation among themselves the defendant's attorneys receded from this position and practically admitted that they had nothing on which to base their charge of misconduct on the part of the jury.

They then made a strong plea for leniency on the grounds of sympathy that the prisoner had a wife and three little children depending upon him. In answer to the plea Prosecuting Attorney Fullen informed the court that the picture had been considerably overdrawn by the prisoners attorneys. Instead of being the model husband they showed him to be the facts were that at the time of his arrest McKnight's wife was separated from him and was earning her own living in a hotel in Des Moines. He stated that letters found on McKnight when arrested showed that she had left him because of ill treatment. When she was informed of his arrest Mrs. McKnight informed the government officers in Des Moines that she would never live with him again as he had got mixed up with the McCarty counterfeiting gang. This the attorneys for McKnight denied as being untrue but Mrs. McKnight, who was in the courtroom on being questioned admitted having said so."

JWB: Mary Etta McCarty, wife of Robert Jacob Bressman is somehow related to the McCarty gang mentioned above.

JWB Notes:

According to Kenneth Leroy Brossman, a story told to him by his father is that Daniel David Brossman left for the military four days after the birth of his first son George. It seems he didn't want to marry the mother, and left with a sheriff posse in hot pursuit and went to New York to join the Army.

I have in my possession, a copy of mining lease dated 28th of June 1898 from Hill Top Mining to Daniel David Brossman, A. Torndal and H. S. Fowler that can be found in the Park County Colorado Records, Book 58, Pg 297 & 298. This shows that Daniel David was living in Colorado as early as 1898 and therefore the Brossman family in Colorado would be qualified for status as a pioneer family. This copy was supplied by Kenneth Leroy Brossman, grandson of Daniel David Brossman.

Daniel David was also appointed as a Deputy Sheriff of Park County Colorado on 11 May 1907.

All photographs of Daniel David and family were supplied by Dean Brossman, great grandson of Daniel David.
